

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 820 REGULATING THE DOING OF BUSINESS BY TRANSIENT PEDDLERS, MERCHANTS, AND VENDORS WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF NASHVILLE TO DEFINE AND CLARIFY THE DEFINITION OF TRANSIENT PEDDLERS, MERCHANTS AND VENDORS AND TO ESTABLISH TIME LIMITATIONS ON TRANSIENT OPERATIONS.

WHEREAS, the City of Nashville regulates the doing of business by transient peddlers, merchants, and vendors in order to protect its citizens from consumer frauds, and

WHEREAS, the definition of transient peddlers, merchants and vendors needs expansion and clarification, and

WHEREAS, time limitations and fees should be established for transient operations, now

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF NASHVILLE:

Section 2 of Ordinance 820 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Every person, firm, or corporation who goes from one city or town to another, stopping only a limited period of time in each for the purpose of marketing sales, goods, wares, services, entertainment, food, beverages or anything of value from a motor vehicle, tent, open-air stand, area or table, trailer, concession or other transient or portable structure, vehicle or device, not otherwise established and classified as a permanent business.

Transient license fees shall be obtained from the city prior to operations, and are hereby set at $300 for 1-7 day operation and $500 for 8 to 30 days of operations. Transient merchants shall only be permitted to operate on one occasion of not more than 30 days per year.

Proof of sales tax permits, health permits, and all other state-required permits shall be provided prior to issuance of a transient merchant permit.

Transient merchants, peddlers, and vendors appearing in conjunction with non-profit organization or governmental functions are exempt from said requirements.

All other provisions of Ordinance 820 shall remain in effect as previously enacted by the City.

This Ordinance as amended shall be and become in full force and effect from and after September 26th, 2006.
